GETTING THE MENTORING YOU NEED

A Seminar for Graduate Student and Postdoctoral Fellows led by Hortensia Amaro, Ph.D.

Good mentoring is a critical part of graduate education and life-long career and professional development. In this session, Dr. Hortensia Amaro will discuss her experiences mentoring graduate and postgraduate students throughout her career. She will address questions including: How can mentees obtain the mentoring they need? How might having several mentors help across different career stages?
